

Private Enforcement of Competition Law. Key Lessons from Recent International Developments

FRIDAY, MARCH 6, 2015

LONDON

UNITED KINGDOM

 #UIACompetition

Seminar organised by the UIA Competition Law Commission in cooperation with the UIA Litigation Commission with the support of the Law Society of England and Wales, Berwin Leighton Paisner LLP and Mlex as media partner

Introduction

Private enforcement of competition law is increasingly important. This is demonstrated by the new European Union Damages Directive (2014/104/EU) and the growing number of claims for damages and/or other remedies arising from national and international cartels and/or other anti-competitive practices.

This conference, which brings together experts from many jurisdictions, including in-house lawyers, a leading Judge, academics, officials and private practice lawyers, will consider the key recent international developments and the lessons which can be learned from them as we look to the future.

Bringing together the world's lawyers

For over 85 years, the Union Internationale des Avocats (UIA - International Association of Lawyers) has been defending the legal profession and facilitating international contacts, cooperation and the exchange of knowledge among lawyers, while respecting their cultural and professional diversity.

Today, the UIA brings together several thousand members – lawyers or law professionals – and hundreds of bars, federations and associations.

Join the UIA and become a member of the world's strongest network of lawyers

- You will participate in the work of the UIA Commissions in Business Law, Human Rights and General Practice and share your experience with that of professionals from over 110 countries.
- You will also be able to join forces with the UIA, which, each year, provides its support to lawyers who cannot freely practise their profession. Everywhere in the world where rights of defence are threatened or the proper administration of justice is hindered, the UIA will make your voice heard.
